INDEPENDENT COSTS NO MORE

But Chautauqua Operated at Local Institution is Much More Satisfactory That Circuit.

50 BECOME INDEPENDENT

Connersville Finds "Circus Substitute" Not Suitable and Leaves
Plans For 1915 Open.

To show the value of the independent chautauqua over the so-called circuit chautauquas, put on by Lyceum bureaus, the case of Connersville was cited yesterday. Because the Redpath bureau, which has been conducting a circuit chautauqua there, tried to boost the price of season tickets for next year, the Connersville Commercial club, which has stood sponsor for the chautauqua, virtually turned down the overture of the Redpath and will consider other bureau circuits before arranging for next year's chautauqua. It is possible they may establish an independent chautauqua like Rush county's.

The Platform, a magazine devoted to Lyceum and chautauqua work, in a number confined to chautauqua work exclusively, just issued, prints an article that is a "clincher" to the argument for an independent chautauqua. It follows in part:

There are at the present time in the United States over 3,000 chautauquas. It is true it is a misnomer to use that term in connection with all of them. Some of them are merely entertainment courses; many of them are merely substitutes for a circus, but, inasmuch as the name has been generally adopted it is difficult to differentiate. Of these assemblies about 500 are independent, that is, are organized by the local interests and run as local institutions. The others are circuit or bureau owned chautauquas, organized and run by the various bureaus. In spite of the fact that the preponderance of circuit bureau promoted chautauquas is so heavy, very few, if any, of the independent chautauquas have embraced the circuit idea. They have nearly all sturdily kept up the fight, for independence and have refused to give up their prerogatives of selecting their own program and keeping their own profits.

The rapid growth of the circuit chautauquas is due to the fact that so many bureaus are booking them exclusively and not to any choice of the individual committees as between the circuit or independent plan. Gradually the circuit chautauquas are learning their lessons and are more and more selecting their programs and attending to their own affairs in just such a manner as any other business would be conducted. For 1914 nearly fifty of the so-called circuit became independent and put on their own programs. The prospects are that for 1915 double that number will become independent. The facts of the case are these: An independent program costs no more than a so-called circuit. The circuit seldom if ever leaves any profits in the local treasury. The independent chautauquas are gradually building up their assets and becoming institutions in the various cities in which they are located. The circuit chautauqua means an entertainment course similar to that placed in over 1,000 other towns of the United States. The independent chautauqua means a local institution continually working for the local interests, both financially, mentally and morally. As to liability to loss, it is exactly as great in the one as in the

BOY IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Suffered Concussion of Brain in Fall
From Hay Mow.

Horace Solomon, the five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Solomon, living east of Blue Ridge, is in a serious condition at his home as a result of a fall of about ten feet from a ladder. The boy suffered a slight concussion of the brain and the attending physician is unable to tell just how badly the boy is hurt. The boy was coming down a ladder leading from the hay mow to the granary. He missed one of the rungs and fell a distance of about ten feet landing on his head. He was unconscious for over two hours.

FORECASTER JUST CAN'T BE DECENT

Today he Had the Temperature Back up to 97 and Was Threatening
People With Thunder Storms.

THERE WAS A COOL BREEZE

The weather man, it appears can't act decent very long at a time. He is threatening thunder showers now on top of some more hot weather. In fact, he is doing more than threatening, he is making it positive and definite. One could not read the prediction today and not feel that there would be thunder showers either this afternoon or tonight. And the forecaster is maintaining his same indifferent attitude in regard to the temperature. He has cast it from his mind. "Partly cloudy tomorrow," he observes rather too placidly.

The mercury began showing signs of getting up in the world late yesterday afternoon and this afternoon at two o'clock had reached ninety-seven degrees. This is in sharp contrast to the eighty mark that folks have been enjoying here the last two days up to today.

At least one favorable thing may be said concerning the weather today. There was a good breeze that helped out mightily.

CANDIDATES WILL ATTEND CARNIVAL

Congressional Nominees in Sixth
Will be Present For Annual Event of Catholic Young Men.

GRAY WILL BE REPRESENTED

To have all of the congressional candidates in the sixth district here is one of the plans being worked out by the young men of the Catholic church who will hold their annual carnival in the park back of the church four days next week, beginning Tuesday night. Arrangements have been made for P. J. Lynch of Newcastle, the Republican nominee, and Elbert Russell of Richmond, the Progressive candidate, to be present, but it is highly probable that Congressman Finly Gray of Connersville, the Democratic nominee, will be unable to come because of pressing business at Washington. He will be represented, however.

Advance notices say the carnival will be bigger than ever this year. There will be a free band concert each night and a home talent show will be given in the old church hall

SAYS THAT WORK MAY BE LIMITED

Thos. A. Coleman, Formerly of This County, Now With Purdue, Comments on Agriculture Courses.

UNIVERSITY MAY TAKE HAND

Suggests it May Have Effect on High School, But School Authorities at Columbus Disagree.

A reorganization in the work in agriculture in the county in town schools, and perhaps in the high school, is the contemplation of the Purdue University Extension Department, according to Thomas A. Coleman, formerly of this county, who is now connected with the department. He was in Columbus yesterday and stated that these changes might be made.

Mr. Coleman was in conference with I. B. Johnson, county agent of Bartholomew, the county work in general and while here he mentioned the fact that Purdue university has decided to have but one subject taught in agriculture in the schools during the coming year.

In Bartholomew county during the past school year some schools handled as many as four subjects in agriculture. Some teachers have dealt with soils, crops, animal husbandry and horticulture. Several teachers handled three subjects and nearly all of them taught at least two subjects.

Mr. Coleman says a list of questions will be sent to the county superintendent and that official will be required to take up with the individual schools the proposition of which subject would be more important in agricultural work than any other. If the majority of the patrons of one school think animal husbandry is of paramount importance that subject will be the only one taught in agriculture during the winter. If the patrons of some other school think soils is the most important subject, why, that topic will be the one on which all of the time will be spent.

The intimation given by the assistant state leader was that the rule to be established in the agricultural course will apply to the high school as well as to the rest of the schools in the county. However, Bartholomew, county superintendent, says he does not think Purdue has any supervision over the course of study in any commissioned high school in the state. It is his opinion that the agricultural work in the local high school may include as many subjects as the school authorities see fit to have taught.

If the suggestions made by Mr. Coleman are carried out, the entire work in agriculture in this county. The list of questions to be propounded to the patrons of the schools and on which the matter will rest, are expected to be forwarded here a little later.

WILSON IS UNCHANGABLE

Refuses to Withdraw Nomination of Jones in Face of Defeat.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 16.—Facing what will be almost certain rejection of Thomas Jones, the Chicago nominee for membership on the federal reserve board, the chief executive today positively refused to withdraw the nomination. He believes the charges against Jones are ill advised and not supported by facts.

COMMISSION FACES A TASK

Goes to Celaya to Arrange For Peaceful Entrance of Constitutionalists Into Mexico City.

AFTER HUERTA'S RESIGNATION

Capital Passes Huerta Crisis Without Rioting, But Peace is Far
From Assured, it is Admitted.

(By United Press.)

Mexico City, July 16.—A commission is today enroute to Celaya to try to arrange for the peaceful entrance of the Constitutionalists into the capital following the retirement of General Huerta last night.

Mexico City has passed the Huerta crisis without rioting but it is admitted that peace is far from assured. Francisco Carbajal, the new provisional president, faces the difficult task of uniting a dozen different factions in forming a provisional cabinet and preserving peace until the Constitutionalists assume control.

Dictator Huerta, the grizzled veteran, resigned the presidency last night. His resignation was accepted by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 121 to 17.

Francisco Carbajal was then appointed President and took the oath of office at the joint session of Deputies and Senators.

Huerta's resignation was submitted through the Department of Foreign Relations.

It was read in the House and was greeted with cries of "Viva Huerta!"

It then was referred to the joint Committees of Gobernacion. After brief consideration the committees reported, accepting the resignation in the following terms:

Article 1.—We accept the resignation presented by General Victoriano Huerta as President of the Mexican United States.

Article 2.—We call Licentiate Francisco Carbajal, Minister of Foreign Relations, to assume the Presidency.

A ballot was taken and the joint session approved the report.

President Carbajal proceeded to the National Palace under an escort of presidential guards, and all along the way was greeted with tumultuous cheering.

The text of General Huerta's resignation follows:

"Deputies and Senators: Public necessity, admitted by the Chamber of Deputies, by the Senate and the Supreme Court, called me to the supreme magistracy of the republic. Later, when in this same hall I had the honor of addressing you in compliance with the constitutional precept, I promised at all costs to bring about peace.

"Seventeen months have passed, and in that brief period of time I have formed an army with which to carry out that solemn promise.

"You all know the immense difficulties which my Government has encountered, owing to a scarcity of funds, as well as to the manifest and decided protection which a great power of this continent has afforded to the rebels—so much so that when the revolution had been broken up, seeing that its chief leaders were and continued to be divided, the Power in question sought a pretext to intervene directly in the conflict, and the result of this was the outrage committed at Vera Cruz by the American fleet.

"Success was held, as you know, in adjusting honorably through our delegates at Niagara Falls the petty Tampico incident, but the revolution

CHARGES ARE DISPROVED

Ensigne Richardson Found Not Guilty of Charges of Correspondent.

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 16.—Charges against Ensigne William Richardson for alleged use of the law of flight at Vera Cruz made by a correspondent, Fred L. Boalt, of the Newspaper Enterprise association were disproved, according to findings of a naval board of inquiry. Admiral Badger advised the navy department this afternoon. Boalt charged Mexicans were allowed to run and were then shot down.

PREPARES HISTORY OF ALLENDER FAMILY

Mrs. E. A. Willis of Bluffton, Ind.,
Urges All Descendants to Send Information to Her at Once.

REUNION, ARLINGTON SEPT. 1

The genealogical record of the Allender family will be ready by the time of the annual family reunion which will be held in Arlington the first Tuesday in September, which is the first day of the month. Every member of the family in this county is urged to correct the records sent to them so that the person in charge of the family genealogy, Mrs. Elmira Allender Willis, of Bluffton, Ind., may have the record complete in time.

Mrs. Willis is tracing the descendants of George Allender, Sr., who came to Rush county from Kentucky

In 1826 and settled on a farm two miles west of Arlington, where he died September 6, 1852, at the age of eighty years, two months and five days. He reared a family of ten girls and four boys, eleven of whom are deceased. Mrs. Willis has succeeded in locating about a thousand of those now living. Their names, ages and present addresses will appear in the booklet, as will also the names, ages and addresses and dates of deaths of the three hundred who are deceased.

FUTURE DEPENDS ON GEN. CARRANZA

Rebels in Mexico Will Not be Recognized by United States Only Under Certain Conditions.

MUST NOT BE DICTATORSHIP

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 16.—The immediate future of Mexico rests with Carranza according to this government's attitude as outlined today both at the White House and the state department.

No Government in Mexico will be recognized by the United States that does not pledge to re-establish constitutional government soon. If Carranza forms a military dictatorship as Huerta did the United States will watch it, but will recognize it or aid it in any way. If Carranza tries to establish a government along broad lines and to protect political opponents, this government will influence bankers to loan him funds.

Mrs. Jesse Pugh is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hogsett.

WILL HE HEAD A NEW REVOLT?

When Dictator, Fleeing From Mexico City, is Lost Today, Rumor of New Revolution is Heard.

TO RE-ESTABLISH FELIX DIAZ

Special Leaves Capital at 2 p. m. Today and is Five Hours Past Due, With No News of it.

(By United Press.)

Vera Cruz, Mexico, July 16.—The train bearing General Huerta and General Blanquet, in flight from Mexico City, is lost insofar as officials of the Mexican railway are concerned.

Five hours after the train was due to Orizaba it had not arrived there. Various possibilities as to what might have occurred were discussed in Vera Cruz. It is considered possible that the train might have been attacked and captured.

Mexican Federals stationed on the outskirts of Vera Cruz expressed astonishment at the failure of the special, with the dictator aboard to reach Orizaba. The mystery as to what became of the train after it left the capital at 2 p. m. this morning can not be solved.

Despite his retirement from the presidency, Huerta is still a field marshal and an officer of the highest rank in the Mexican army. The belief was expressed here this afternoon the dictator is heading for Oaxaca to head a revolt to be started in the interest of Felix Diaz. As the commanding officer of the army it is believed Huerta might attach much of the strength of the Federal forces to his leadership.

REBELS NEAR MEXICO CITY

Within Few Miles of Capital Today
But Didn't Enter.

(By United Press.)

Mexico City, July 16.—The special train on which General Huerta and many of his friends and adherents fled from the capital did not leave here until 2 a. m. today. The city is quiet and it is believed the crisis will be passed without rioting.

It was learned today that a party of Rebels had advanced as far as Culchualco in the Federal district near the capital. The garrison in the capital is small but the Rebels made no attempt to enter the city.

IN the WHIRL of the MOVIES

SCENE FROM "HIS SOB STORY."

"HIS SOB STORY" is a dramatic two reel feature by Reynolds Knight. It tells the story of a "down and outer" who gets a job as a reporter and is instrumental in joining a man and wife who have been parted for a number of years and lands a good position for himself in the bargain.

A young attorney for a mining company is obliged to investigate a dynamite outrage which will involve the brother of his sweetheart, in "Prosecution." He is kidnapped by the miners and left far out in the desert with but a single canteen of water. The girl's sympathies are aroused, and she induces her brother to help her rescue him. Gratitude prompts the attorney to resign his position, but the girl insists the warrant be served on her brother, kisses him goodbye before he is taken to jail and sobs out her grief in the young attorney's arms.

Much interest centers in the actors and others who figure in the new serial, "The Million Dollar Mystery." Never before has such an array of talent in various lines been associated in the production of a film.

Principal among them are James Cruze, Florence La Badie, Sidney Bracy, Lila Chester, Frank Farrington and Marguerite Snow. Harold MacGrath is the author of the serial story from which Mr. Lonergan furnished the scenario.

In "The False and the True" her eyesight is destroyed by an accidental discharge of dynamite and the man who pretended to love her refuses to marry her. The day for her wedding had been set and the false lover's place is taken by the man who really loves her. She never knows the truth until, through another accidental explosion, her eyes are opened and she learns the facts.

MIRIAM NESBITT.

Miriam Nesbitt is a great favorite with photo players and fans alike. Her charming personality has been instrumental in making her success assured as well as her ability.

In "A Train of Incidents" Bunny takes his pupil to Arizona on a fortune hunt. Flora Finch, with a like desire, takes her pretty charge to the same point. When they arrive in Arizona the young lady thinks Bunny is the man she must marry, and the young man likewise mistakes. The two young people try to escape their prospective helpmates and by so doing learn "who's who," which makes them very anxious to marry each other. When they return to their elderly companions they find them of like mind and all start back east on their honeymoons.

Girls in Illinois Reformatory Watch $10,000 Fire Today.

(By United Press.)

Geneva, Ill., July 16.—Four hundred girls in the state reformatory here watched a blaze that did $10,000 damage to the administration building today, and marched out of their cottages when the fire drill was sounded. But one was missing at the breakfast, according to the superintendent.

Society News

Thirty-one Tri Kappas sat down to dinner at the Scanlan House last night. After the course dinner, the sorority girls went to the home of Miss Marie Clark in North Main street where seven new members were initiated. The new members are Mrs. Hubert Innis, Mrs. Lowell M. Green, Mrs. Lewis Henry, Miss Vera Clark, Miss Helen Black, Mrs. Jack Kuecht and Miss Eva Clark.

FINGER BADLY CUT.

Joe Clevenger, Jr., the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clevenger, sustained a badly cut finger last evening while playing with a lawn mower. The knives caught his little finger and it was cut to the bone on either side. He was taken to Dr. Logan where the cut was dressed. The finger was not amputated but it was expected that it would prove necessary.

ALL ABOUT THE PYTHIAN JUBILEE

Some Useful Information Concerning Great Convention.

CAMP.—Camp Arthur J. Stobart is ideally located on the historic National road, which was once the main and only thoroughfare from Washington to St. Louis. It is within twelve blocks of the main business and residence district of the city and is easily reached by a double track electric car line, with ample facilities for handling the crowds. It will be well watered and sewerage, and its sanitary arrangements will be ideal in every respect.

CANVAS.—Tents will be furnished free of charge to all visiting Sir Knights of the Uniform Rank. The tents are furnished by the C. J. Wagner Awning company of Cleveland, O., which has furnished the tents for the Pythian encampments for years past. Floors may be ordered for these tents at the following rates: Ten by 12, $3; 12 by 14, $4; 14 by 16, $5; 14 by 22, $6. This covers the cost of the use of the flooring and putting it down ready for use.

MESS TENT.—A contract has been made with a reliable firm of restaurateurs to furnish first class meals on the camp ground at 35 cents a meal, according to menus furnished in advance to the satisfaction of the committee in charge of this portion of the entertainment. A reasonable reduction from this price will be made where meal tickets are purchased. Ample facilities for handling the large crowds anticipated. Many churches will also furnish first class meals in the immediate vicinity of the camp.

COTS.—Cots will be furnished at a net cost of 75 cents for the use of a cot during the encampment. A deposit of $1.25 will be required in advance, and on the return of the cot in good condition at the close of the encampment 50 cents of the original deposit will be refunded.

BLANKETS.—Blankets will be furnished at a cost of 50 cents for the week. A deposit of $1 will be required for each, and upon the return in good condition 50 cents of the original deposit will be returned.

MOUNTS.—First class mounts for the parade on Tuesday, July 21, will be furnished for $4.50, including equipment; without equipment for $4 each. Requisitions for mounts should be made to the secretary of the executive committee, E. H. Clifford, as early as possible that proper arrangements may be made for them. There will be a sufficient number of mounts for all, and there should be no delay in placing the orders at as early a date as possible.

REQUISITIONS.—Requisitions for tents may also be made to the secretary of the executive committee as aforesaid, and they will be given proper attention.

FLOORING TENTS.—Where flooring is desired the order for this should be placed as soon as possible.

ATHLETIC ENTERTAINMENTS.—The Terre Haute baseball club, one of the leaders of the Central league and one of the strongest of the minor leagues of the country, will be at home all week during the encampment and will furnish splendid sport for those whose sporting proclivities are inclined in that direction.

A local athletic club has arranged for a boxing contest to be given at the baseball park on the evening of Tuesday, July 21. A good bill has been arranged, consisting of three principal events, the leading feature being a contest between Jack Dillon of Indianapolis and Knockout Brown of Chicago at 153 pounds.

HOUSING.—Suitable rooming accommodations have been arranged for ladies accompanying visiting Sir Knights. The people of Terre Haute have thrown open their homes for this purpose, and rooms may be secured at the rate of from 50 cents to 75 cents per night, with breakfast extra. Applications for these rooms may be made to the secretary of the executive committee, who will turn them over to the housing committee.

RATES.—A special rate of 2 cents has been secured for the International Encampment. Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias, Terre Haute, Ind., July 19 to 25, 1914.

Further information desired in addition to that furnished here may be obtained by addressing the secretary of the executive committee, E. H. Clifford, Terre Haute, Ind.

AN EDUCATIONAL CENTER.

Terre Haute, Where Pythians Meet, Leads Indiana Cities.

Terre Haute is the educational center of Indiana. Some other cities in the state have one and a few have two notable educational institutions, but Terre Haute has three such. They are Rose Polytechnic institute, an old and famous school in Terre Haute, which has recently acquired 130 acres of land for its new home.

St. Mary-of-the-Woods, a school for girls, which owns 800 acres of beautiful woodland and is one of the finest girls' schools in the United States.

No Place For Ladies.

A famous foreign newspaper correspondent, a German, was stopping at a seaside hotel where the dining room helpers, following the New England custom, were nearly all college girls, working during vacation in order to keep themselves at school the rest of the year.

The spectacled young person who presided over the table where the German newspaper man ate was undoubtedly of excellent breeding, but she never seemed to remember whether the eggs were to be fried on one side or scrambled on both.

Finally, one evening after he had been served with a meal entirely different from the one he had ordered, the foreigner lost his temper and spoke rather sharply to the young woman.

"Easy there!" admonished his table mate, an American writer. "She's a lady, you know, old man."

"But I do not want a lady," said the German plaintively. "I want a waiter!"

The Ax in the Glacier.

Zurbiggen, one of the celebrated mountain climbers of the world, in scaling a peak of Les Anglaises, near Chamonix, accidentally let his ice ax fall from near the summit of the peak. It fell some thousands of feet. In the normal course of things it was buried in snow and swallowed up in the glacier, being covered deeper and deeper each year, and at the same time being carried slowly downward as the ice flowed on. Seven or eight years afterward Hon. C. G. Gruce and Harkbir, a sepy chief, in descending a peak in the Alps just as night was falling and a great crevasse barred the way, being unable to find the bridge over it, cut a path down to the bottom, where Harkbir stepped on an ax which had "M. Z." Zurbiggen's initials, on the handle. There could be no mistake as to the identity of the ax, as Harkbir had seen it and used it before.—Christian Herald.

HOOSIER SPORTS ARE AGAINST BILL

Assert Proposed Act Before Congress, Prohibiting Use of Trap Nets Would Work Injustice.

AN IMPORTANT INSTRUMENT

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, July 16.—Indiana fishermen along the Michigan shore are showing interest in the fisheries bill which is resting in one of the congressional committees in an unamended form. Though Indiana touches Lake Michigan comparatively little, there is much trap fishing done, and Indiana fishermen are complaining, as are fishermen in other states of the middle west, that the proposed law would work an injustice.

The bill would prevent use of trap nets, eliminating the most important instrument used in the fish industry along the great lakes. The opinion of Indiana Fish Commissioner Miles could not be obtained, for he is inspecting hatcheries in various parts of the state.

SPEAKS SPEAKS UP ON FISHERIES BILL

Ohio Game Warden Criticism Considered Law Which Would Work to Advantage of Canadians.

HE SEES NO OCCASION FOR IT

(By United Press.)

Columbus, O., July 16.—Game Warden Speaks came out with a statement today in which he criticized the fisheries bill in Washington. He said:

"Regulation of great lakes fishing through adoption of international law is necessary, but no single contrivance, such as the fish trap, should be singled out for the attack. The only regulation that will help is one preventing the seining of lake fish under a certain size, such as 15 inches. Even this law would discriminate against fishermen in the states if it were merely an interstate law. Eighty-five per cent. of the fish caught in Canada are shipped into the United States."

Speak said the passage of the proposed law would mean a loss of thousands of dollars to Ohio fishermen alone through unequal competition with Canada.

That Brown County Ticket.

Later dispatches from Nashville, county seat of Brown county, are in effect that there never was any intention on the part of Progressives of putting a county ticket in the field, though the wonderful Bull Moose sentiment in that county has been heralded far and wide. There was only one full-fledged Mooser left in the county and he was the county chairman, James A. Turner, who worked all day on the new bank building, feeling it was an easier task to erect a new building than to find material for a Progressive county ticket.

Frank Rogers, former Mooser, was in town, but he is now back in the Republican party. Albert Philips, a candidate two years ago on the county ticket, sent his "regrets," saying that he had returned to his first love, and was Republican chairman of his precinct in VanBuren township.

The statement had been made that on July 11 the Progressives would put a ticket in the field in Brown county but Chairman Turner says there was no official call, and that there was no intention of trying to name a ticket.

continued, with the support of whom we all know.

"Yet, after the highly patriotic work achieved by our delegates at Niagara Falls, there are still some who will say that I, come what may, seek my personal interest.

"And as I need to rebut this allegation with facts I tender my formal resignation of the Presidency of the republic.

"The National Congress must know that the republic, through its Government, has labored in entire good faith and with the fullest energy, having succeeded in doing away with the party which in the United States calls itself Democratic and having shown how the right should be defended.

"To be more explicit, I will say that the action of the Government of the republic during its short life has dealt death blows to an unjust power. Later on stronger workers will come using implements that undoubtedly will end that power, which has done so much and committed so many outrages on this continent.

"In conclusion, I will say that I will abandon the Presidency of the republic, carrying with me the highest sum of human wealth for I declare that I have arraigned at the bar of universal conscience the honor of a Puritan, whom I, as a gentleman, challenge to wrest from me that possession.

"May God bless you and me."

The galleries of the Chamber of Deputies were packed before the beginning of the session this afternoon. Intense excitement characterized the gathering, and at the close of the reading of Huerta's resignation the Deputies and spectators broke into loud and continued applause.

After the acceptance of Huerta's resignation a commission was appointed by the president of the Chamber to escort Senor Carbajal to the floor of the House. Soon Senor Carbajal appeared in front of the Chamber, passing through files of soldiers. He entered, and as he walked to the platform the Deputies stood. Speaker Mantel Mercade then administered the oath.

Two deputies spoke vigorously against the acceptance of Huerta's resignation, one of them calling it "weak submission to the United States."

Two other deputies spoke in favor of acceptance, declaring that it was the only way to save the country and end the fratricidal strife.

Little Orphans in Knightstown Institution Enjoy Week's Picnic
Near Hagerstown, Wayne Co.

FIRST IN HISTORY OF HOME

Hagerstown, Ind., July 16.—The children from the Knightstown Orphans' home, who are spending the week here were given a picnic Tuesday afternoon in the Teeter grove, by the women, who have them in charge. Near one hundred persons were present. Ice cream for the company was furnished by Charles Teeter and sacks of peanuts for all the children by Joe Teeter. The children were delighted.

This is the first outing of the kind for the children in the history of the home. The children were chaperoned here by Miss Nellie Brant, Miss Cora Caster and Mrs. Jesse Replogle. They will be returned to the home Saturday in automobiles.

other, except for the fact that the lack of interest in the bureau owned chautauqua makes a loss more imminent than with the independent assembly. We do not believe that there is any other business in existence which could be conducted upon similar lines with the circuit chautauqua. No business man in dealing for himself would be willing to buy without stipulating what he was to receive. The circuit chautauqua committee agrees to put up large sums of money ranging from $400 up to $1,500, and in addition to this, promises the lion's share of the profits over that sum, and in return they do not receive absolute assurance as to what their program is to be. True, it is to the interest of the circuit bureau to put on a fairly satisfactory program. One circuit bureau lost nearly twenty towns last season because their program was unsatisfactory. They could well afford to lose the twenty towns, however, because the profits on that individual program were so much greater than they would have been if they had given good service, and they can easily pick up twenty new towns.

BASEBALL HERE IS ABOUT DEAD

No Game Sunday and it Looks Like Management Was About Ready to Give up the Ship.

HAS BEEN FINANCIAL LOSS

Effort to Secure Team Without Much Expense Meets With Failure— Outlook Very Gloomy.

It begins to look as though baseball in Rushville was about over for this year. There will be no game Sunday. The Rushville team was to have played Newcastle but since this team asked to play later in the season because of adverse conditions in Newcastle the team here was left without a game. An effort was then made to play an Indianapolis team.

No less than half a dozen Indianapolis teams wanted to play here but they all wanted a guarantee and the management was afraid the crowd would not be large enough to make expenses so there will be nothing doing at the South Main street grounds.

A change in the team was made recently in the hopes of bettering conditions but so far the fans have failed to turn out in sufficient numbers to justify the management in booking a team for Sunday with any class and at the time secure an even break at the gate. A team from Cincinnati was out of the question because the excursion does not come in this direction this Sunday.

With the kind of team and the class of ball played it is strange that the team has not received the support that it should. To play any team with class Sunday would have required a crowd to make expenses and the management, because of the crowd in the past, did not believe this large a crowd would turn out.

The season has been a stormy one here and although the start was very good, following the two defeats at the hands of Connersville, the fans deserted the team. Then a change was made and an entirely new team was placed here. This should have helped some, but the crowd got smaller and last Sunday there were less than 200 paid admissions at the gate.

With this kind of a crowd last Sunday the management did not like to take a chance the coming Sunday. The Indianapolis Merits could have been secured, but it was a game of chance as to how many people they would draw. Manager Davidson has made an effort to give the people a first class team but from all indications the fans do not seem to care and with no game here Sunday it is a question as to how long it will be before the sign of "pasture to rent" is placed on the gate at the ball park.

Four days have passed without securing a team and as only two remain until Sunday the prospects were not very bright. The management figured that enough money had been lost without losing more so there is nothing doing Sunday. It is stated that there will be the next however.

CHRISTIAN TEAM LOSES

Are Defeated by Methodists in S. S. League 8 to 5.

The first game in the Sunday school league was won by the Methodist team, that aggregation defeating the Christian team 8 to 5. The contest was very close and for a time towards the close it looked like the Christians would succeed in tying up the score. Bebout, pitching for the Methodist team had the better of the argument. Errors were frequent but the teams played good ball. The Batteries were—Christians, Higgs and Brown and France; Methodist, Bebout and Tompkins.

RULING IS VICTORY FOR FEDERAL LEAGUE

Granting of Illinois Appellate Court of Right to Fall Back on Ten-Day Clause Hailed as Win

SUPERIOR COURT REVERSED

(By United Press.)

Chicago, Ill., July 16.—The Illinois appellate court today reversed the decision of the Cook county superior court in the George Johnson case in a ruling that is hailed by Federal League magnates as the most important thus far in the baseball war. The effect will be that baseball players dissatisfied with a long term contract may take advantage of the ten-day clause.

The appellate court is the one last resort in this case. Federal league magnates say this is an important victory for their cause.

DENVER CLOSED UP FOR PARADE

Was Big Feature of Golden Jubilee
Reunion of Elks Which is in Progress There.

25,000 MEMBERS IN MARCH

Unique Open Air Ball Will be Staged
Tonight—Grand Lodge Sessions to Close.

Denver, July 16.—Denver closed up shop for several hours today to witness the biggest feature of the Golden Jubilee Reunion of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks which has been in progress here all week. This was the annual parade of all Elk lodges in the United States, always looked forward to as the crowning event of every reunion.

Twenty-five thousand members of the order, representing cities in every nook and corner of the United States, participated. For three hours, beginning at 10 a. m. the visiting "Bills" tramped through the downtown streets, through lanes of humanity. It is estimated that of Denver's 235,000 inhabitants, fully half were on hand to see the march. The officers of the Grand Lodge, adjourning their meeting for a few hours, occupied a huge reviewing stand on Fourteenth street near the Municipal Auditorium.

Tonight the streets downtown will be brilliantly illuminated in honor of the visitors and a unique open air ball with be staged. Champa street from Fourteenth to Fifteenth and Fourteenth street for 2 blocks will be covered with canvass and the Elks and their ladies will trip the light fantastic to the music of thirty bands.

The sessions of the grand lodge continued all day and are expected to be brought to a close tonight.

Failure of Argentine Beef to Reduce Prices.

INQUIRY FOR LAST 6 MONTHS

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 16.—The flood of protests pouring in on the department of agriculture from all parts against the extraordinary increase in beef prices will hasten the department's investigation and its probe of beef prices, which has continued quietly for the last six months, officials stated today.

The failure of free Argentine beef to bring down the price and the charge that American packers control that supply are receiving careful examination.

MIDNIGHT CONFERENCE HELD

Villa and U. S. General Meet on International Bridge at Juarez.

(By United Press.)

Juarez, Mexico, July 16.—A midnight conference last night that was kept secret until today may have an important bearing on the Mexican situation. General Villa met General Bell, commanding the American troops, in the middle of the international bridge while traffic over the bridge was stopped. Neither would say what they discussed. The hint is that the conference followed instructions from Washington.

Amusements

For three years the Young Buffalo Wild West and Col. Cummins' Far East has held the reputation of being the best in its line. Each year the organization has grown, attraction upon attraction having been added, each being the peer of its class.

Vernon C. Seaver has added this year the Seaver Hippodrome, thus making the combined shows a perfect and complete amusement enterprise, bringing together into one aggregation three entire yet non-conflicting exhibitions that set each other off to the greatest possible advantage. The organization will exhibit in Rushville the afternoon and evening of Saturday, July 18.

Featured on the program this year are seventeen widely different subjects covering altogether almost every variety of amusement known and bearing out the manager's assertion that the combined shows are in reality the earth condensed into one exhibition. The Indian is shown as he was when he was master of the North American Continent, the life of the real American pioneer is depicted, both in peace and in war Cossacks from the steppes of Russia perform the feats of horsemanship that have made them famous since Rome ruled the world. South America is represented by gauchos, Africa by Arabs and Dahomians, Asia by Hindoos, Japs and Chinese, Australia by Bushmen, and the South Sea Islands by Maoris and Cingalese. Every obscure corner of the world has been searched for material and is exploited in this exhibition.

Among the feature numbers of the program, probably the best known, is the sharp shooting act of Annie Oakley, famed as the champion wing and rifle shot of the world. She holds the championship by virtue of her extraordinary performances at a number of international contests and will justify her claims to it at each performance of the combined shows here.

Hardin's Spanish Cadets, a corps of perfectly trained Castilian beauties, present a marvelous series of drills and manipulations of arms that is not excelled even at the crack military schools of the world. The Etta Myers Quartette, consisting of a girl, a midget pony, a knowing dog and Tiny Muggins, the smallest and most intellectual elephant in the world, will put on an act that is entirely new. Two other trained animal acts of unusual merit are Eildridge's Elephants and Mlle. Amy's High School Horses. Both are European novelties and are acknowledged by reviewers to be premiers in their respective classes.

It is announced that the street parade, over a mile in length, will leave the show grounds at 10.30 the day of the exhibition here and that the performances will commence at 2.00 and 8.00 p. m., the doors opening an hour before each.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

WIRELESS PHONE SCORES TRIUMPH

Ordinary Instrument Used to Receive Messages.

NEW ERA IN RADIO SCIENCE

Voice of Inventor McCaa, Talking on Steamship Deck, Plainly Heard in Newspaper Office — Experts Foresee Time When We Can Call Up Our Friends at Sea.

For the first time since it was discovered that messages could be transmitted through the ether without the medium of wires a human voice on board a ship at sea was in long communication with land.

Every word that Dr. D. G. McCaa, an inventor of Lancaster, Pa., uttered from the deck of the Old Dominion steamship Tyler was heard plainly through the medium of the telephone apparatus now in common use, in the New York Herald office.

A telephone instrument was connected by wire with an instrument in the Herald radio station at the Battery, New York. That instrument was connected directly with the aërials, or antennae, high above the station. Those aërials caught the spoken voice of Dr. McCaa as it came through the ether from the Tyler, and instantly the voice was heard by the person holding the receiver to his ear in the newspaper office.

Opens Up Big Possibilities.

The test proves, according to experts, that wireless communication is upon the threshold of its greatest forward step; that a person on shore, in his home or his office may pick up the same telephone that he has been using for years to transmit land messages and be placed in communication quickly with any person on board a steamship at sea.

Furthermore, it means, according to these same experts and approved by steamship men, that every vessel at sea may now be in communication at all times with other vessels and with the land by a simple apparatus that does not require a specially drilled operator, as does the wireless telegraph. The master of a freight vessel may stand on his bridge and speak in an ordinary voice into his wireless telephone instrument and be heard by his agents ashore or by other vessels.

Soon after the Tyler, bound for Norfolk, Va., passed quarantine in New York harbor Dr. McCaa got into direct telephone communication with the Herald.

"Hello, Herald radio station!" came a voice into the station. "This was answered by wireless telegraphy. Then came the voice again: "This is Dr. McCaa, on board the Tyler. Let us talk to one of the editors, please."

Voice Plainly Heard.

A receiving instrument in the Battery station was connected directly with the telephone company's system, and a connection was obtained.

"Hello! Hello!" came the voice as plainly as though the speaker were only a few feet away. "This is Dr. McCaa. I am on board the Tyler, bound out in the direction of Sandy Hook."

Messages went back and forth most of the night and long after the Tyler had turned the corner of Sandy Hook and was far on her way to Norfolk.

Dr. McCaa's interest in wireless telephony dates from the first practice tests of wireless telegraphy by Signor Marconi in 1902. "I thought then," he says, "that if it were possible to transmit dots and dashes it must also be possible to develop the wireless telephone."

"My first work was of an experimental nature with wireless telegraphy. I then applied my mind to X ray work, and next I applied myself to developing my theories in regard to wireless telephony."

Dr. McCaa is thirty years old. He was graduated from the Medico Chirurgical college in Philadelphia in 1903.

TO SAVE AFRICAN ELEPHANTS.

Pachyderm and Rhinoceros Said to Be In Danger of Extinction.

An "elephant and rhinoceros congress," in which delegates representing all of the great powers directly interested in Africa, recently finished a week's sitting at the London foreign office, and as a result it is probable that effective action will be taken to preserve these animals from extinction in Africa.

The conference met at the suggestion of W. Woosnam, game warden of British East Africa, who pointed out that the elephant and rhinoceros were in greater danger of extermination than any other species of big game in Africa.

The most important item in the plans of the meeting was the formation and maintenance of absolute sanctuaries for the elephant and rhinoceros in suitable localities. The shooting of these animals would then be permitted only on license, the conditions of which would be made as nearly identical as possible in the different territories.

Both the elephant and rhinoceros take long to attain maturity and, like the American bison and elk, seem unable to protect themselves from the modern hunter. They breed slowly, and the stock is becoming dangerously reduced.

RECALLS THE OLD "MURDER TRACT"

Automobile Accident West of Richmond is Near Scene of Many Unusual Happenings in Wayne County.

"HAUNTED HOUSE" IN CENTER

There Murders Have Been Committed, Persons Have Taken Their Lives and Accidents Occurred.

(By United Press.)

Richmond, Ind., July 16.—The automobile tragedy which snuffed out the lives of Ada Kelly of this city and Imogene Smith of Newcastle and seriously injured five others when the car turned turtle two miles west of Richmond on the National road, has again directed attention to the "murder tract" of Wayne county.

Facing the scene of the automobile accident is a strip of land uncultivated and rank with underbrush and weeds. In its center stands a deserted house known as the "Haunted House." The man who committed the first murder in Wayne county resided in the house. About the house and tract center a gruesome series of murders, suicides and horrible accidents.

When Henry Chrst on April 1, 1807, was hanged at Salsbury, first county seat, whose site is now obliterated, the place of execution bordered the murder tract and the gallows faced the house.

George Kem, son of the Rev. Joseph Kem, lived in the house in 1887. Just to the north of the tract lived Rachel Whitaker. One Sunday afternoon George Kem called on the young woman. The last seen of the girl alive she was walking down a lane toward the murder house with Kem. The next day her body was found in a brush heap near the house. Although Kem's shoes fitted tracks in the soft mud and blood was found on his coat, he was acquitted.

More history was added to the tract in 1867-68 when a man named Fosna crossed it to the Joe Roe farm, to the west, and was taken back a corpse. Roe was butchering hogs when Fosna arrived. Calmly picking up a sharp pointed knife, Fosna tested it on his thumb, indicating the region of his heart, and stabbed himself to death.

After his father had dreamed for three nights in succession that he had seen a hearse drawn by two black horses drive to their home on the murder tract, John Kem was brought home the victim of a hunting accident. While coon hunting, a tree which he and his companions had cut down broke a limb from another tree and killed him. This was in 1871.

In March of the next year, the body of an itinerant butcher, unidentified, was found in a field across the road from the tract. The man, who carried a complete kit of butchers tools, had climbed a tree and hanged himself with a belt. His body was suspended several days until the belt broke and let it fall to the ground where it was found.

While sitting by her child's cradle on November 2, 1889, McClellan Miller's sister had a premonition of her brothers' death. She imagined she saw him lying in a corn field between two rows. Later the body was found in a field adjoining the tract. Death had been caused by a rifle ball and was attributed to the accidental discharge of his own gun.

Just to the south a double tragedy occurred a few days ago when Alexander and Raymond Meek were shot to death by a neighbor in a family feud over a partition fence.

The last of the extraordinary series of tragic deaths which have happened in and around the mysterious house on the murder tract were those resulting from the automobile wreck on the night of July 3, when Miss Ada Kelly and Miss Imogene Smith lost their lives. Five other occupants of the car were so badly bruised that they will be disfigured for life. This happened on the road at the corner

NOT HAVE TO CUT THE WEEDS

Opinion by State Examiner Says it is Optional With Land Owners Whether They Do.

THEN HE WILL GET $1.25 A DAY

No Penalty is Provided, But Provision is Made for Period From July 1 to August 20.

That it is optional with land owners along Indiana's county and township highways whether they will cut the weeds along the highways from July 1 to August 20, of each year, receiving $1.25 a day for such labor, is a point made today by Gilbert H. Hendren, state examiner of the state board of accounts, in an opinion given to C. V. Hodgins, trustee of Union township, Montgomery county. The opinion is of wide interest throughout the rural districts. It follows:

In response to your inquiry of this day, will say that Section 7897, Burns' R. S., provides that land owners shall cut all briars, thistles, burrs, dock and other noxious weeds growing along or through their lands, within the period beginning July 1 and ending August 20 each year. This law was enacted in 1897. The act is broad and it does not seem to have been modified or repealed by subsequent enactments.

Section 2 of this act provides that when the land owner shall have destroyed the weeds in the highway adjacent to his land under the direction of the road supervisor of his district, he shall be entitled to credit on his road taxes at the rate of $1.25 a day for the time occupied in doing the work.

By Section 3 of the act, if the land owner neglects or refuses to do this work, the supervisor may secure any resident property owner of the road district to do such work, and give him like credit therefor on his road taxes.

No penalty is provided for failure to do the work by the land owner, and the supervisor is not authorized to "warn out" the land owner to do such work. It seems to be optional with the land owner as to whether he will do the work and get credit therefor.

While the highway superintendent is required by Section 7757, Burns' R. S., to "keep all side ditches open so that the road will be properly drained," and to keep "grass" out of the roadbed, he is not authorized to "warn out" order or direct the land owner to cut or destroy weeds in the highway.

In my judgment, the purpose of the statute was to enable the land owners to destroy the weeds in the highways along their farms, and to get credit for the work on their road taxes, but that there is no way to axes, but that there is no way to compel the land owner to do the work unless he so desires.
